

December 23, 2016

Information for IPS 2016 attendants

We are looking forward to welcome you to the 62nd IPS annual meeting that will be held at Tel Aviv University on Sunday, December 25th, 2016.

We would like to provide you with some useful information

Registration:

The online registration to the IPS meeting is still open. You are welcome to register till Sunday morning. In the day of the conference, registration will be possible in site using the online registration service on the IPS website. Note - the payment can be possible with credit cards only. No cash payments or checks will be accepted.

Location:

The opening of the conference and the plenary session will be held at the in Tel Aviv University campus. The closest entrance to is gate no. 4.

For those who come by car, the closest parking is "" nearby gate no. 4. Parking inside the campus is not possible, yet you will get a conference discount at "" on a departure after 15:00 (i.e. the price for the daily parking will be 12NIS instead of 24NIS). For your convenience you can find TAU's gate no. 4 on the Waze application. For those of you that arrive by public transportation, please use the .

The review and the parallel sessions of the conference will be held at , a short walk from the Smolarsh auditorium. .

Poster sessions:

The poster sessions will be held in Orenstein hall and Shenkar-Physics hall in the exact sciences buildings. The poster presenters are requested to hang their posters in between 8:15-8:45 a.m. or 11:15-11:40 a.m. TAU volunteer students will guide and help you.

Further information on the conference and the detailed program can be viewed on the conference website ().

We hope to see you all at Tel-Aviv University,

Best regards,

The IPS 2016 organizers

Newsletter Items: